We have two Specific Duties under the 2010 Equality Act:

- To publish information to demonstrate our compliance with the general duty to promote equality
- To prepare and publish one or more equality objectives

Our objectives for the Academic Year of 2025/26 period are:

- To promote spiritual, moral, social and cultural development through all appropriate curricular opportunities, with particular reference to issues of equality and diversity
- To reduce prejudice and increase understanding of equality through direct teaching across the curriculum
- To reduce the differential between boys and girls/ SEND/ Disadvantaged pupils
- To promote cultural development and understanding through a rich range of experiences both in and beyond the school
- To reduce any incidences of prejudice-related bullying in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010
- To continually consider how well the school ensures equality of opportunities for all its pupils
- To tackle prejudice and promote understanding in relation to people with disabilities
- To develop the cultural capital of our children, to introduce the children to the awe and wonder of our world, every day
- To ensure that our curriculum and provision give our children the knowledge and language that they need to become educated citizens.
